

H ~ Website contact information for overseas Wodehouse Societies

There may be occasions when those researching an aspect of Wodehouse's life or work wish to investigate information relating to overseas countries. There are four active Wodehouse Societies overseas which as a general rule are happy to receive enquiries on specific questions, but as a starting point, we recommend that you visit the relevant website, as detailed below, where you will be able to see the range of information offered.

Country	Society Name	Website Address	President	Principal contact
Belgium	The Drones Club of Belgium	www.drones.be	Kris Smets	Kris Smets, drones.club@telenet.be
The Netherlands	P. G. Wodehouse Society *	https://wodehouse-society.nl/	Peter Nieuwenhuizen	Peter Nieuwenhuizen
Sweden	The Wodehouse Society Sweden	www.wodehouse.se	Jenny Gustafson	Bengt Malmberg, bengt.malmberg37@gmail.com
USA	The Wodehouse Society	www.wodehouse.org	Bill Scrivener	billscrivener47@gmail.com

* Note also that this website includes the following page in English, with information about the research of Ken Clevenger and Dutch member Ole van Luyn:
<https://wodehouse-society.nl/research-onderzoek/french-words-le-mot-juste>

Russia

The Russian Wodehouse Society has not been active for a long time. Its website remains in existence, under the guidance of Mikhail Kuzmenko, who continues to add new material, mostly on new Russian editions. The website, <http://wodehouse.ru>, has a short English section with a 'Contact us' link.